U.S. Ambassador Will Report On Cuban Breach

By HAROLD K. MILKS

HAVANA (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal flies home today to report on Prime Minister Fidel Castro's mounting anti-American campaign.

The envoy prepared to head for Washington with some observers feeling that the fiery Prime Minister wants to wreck traditional Cuban-U.S. friendship and eventually oust the United States from its key Guantanamo naval base here.

Bonsal did not spell out what he will report to the State Department, but associates said he has been convinced in the past few days that Castro himself is behind the anti-American drive and that only Castro can stop it. The situation has reached such a stage that some Americans and Cubans have even been asking about a possible diplomatic break.

Such a suggestion—which would have been deemed fantastic a few weeks ago — has been encouraged by the running propaganda barrage by Castro-supported organs against Bonsal, President Eisenhower, and the United States in general.

The Cuban government's picture of the widening rift is quite different from the one Bonsal is expected to draw for the State Department.

Castro and his aides claim the United States is responsible for the breach. They insist Washington encourages dictators and traitors and permits air raids on Cuban sugar fields. They also have accused Washington of threatening economic reprisals for Cuban government seizure of American investments.

Observers say Castro's campaign is aimed at breaking up ties between Havana and Washington in order to fit Cuba into a new international scheme. They say the plan is not Communist-directed but that it follows closely the pattern of Communist countries.

These observers say Castro wants to gain possession of nearly a billion dollars' worth of American agricultural and industrial investments in Cuba, in line with the nationalization of Cuban economy.

Eventually, they say, he hopes to oust the Americans from the 45-square-mile tract that comprises the U.S. Guantanamo base.

New Reserve Quotas Here Announced

Captain James E. Orr, commanding officer of the 238th Transportation company, USAR, announced today that new reserve quotas for the first quarter of 1960 include three spaces in the Hope unit for young men to enlist under the 6-month program of the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

Captain Orr pointed out that these quotas provide a welcome opportunity for high school and college students graduating at mid-term. They can enlist now and complete their six-months active duty in time to enter college next fall or to enter into a civilian occupation with a minimum of interruption.

Under the RFA 1955 plan, young men with no previous military experience may join their home town reserve unit and enter a period of six months of active duty at a regular army installation. They will receive basic training and further instruction in their MOS military occupational specialty. At the completion of this active duty period, they will rejoin their reserve unit and complete their military obligation by attending weekly meetings and participating in the unit's annual active duty during the summer.

Further information may be secured at the Reserve Center, West Third and Louisiana streets on meeting nights. The unit meets each Thursday night, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Adult Education Fund About Out

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP)—The Fun for Adult Education will go out of business in 12 to 18 months and the education division of the Ford Foundation will take over, it was announced Thursday. Since 1951 the fund has received Ford Foundation grants totaling 45 million dollars to use independently in developing liberal education for adults.

G. W. Hood, Former McCaskill Man Dies in Arizona

G. W. Hood, aged 89, a retired farmer, died Thursday at his home in Alo, Arizona. Mr. Hood was a resident of McCaskill for many years.

He is survived by a son, J. W. Hood of El Dorado; three daughters, Mrs. Nina Martin of Alo; Mrs. Luther Young of McCaskill; Mrs. Mac Andrews of El Dorado; a brother, Henry Hood, and a sister, Mrs. Maggie Bradley of Plainview, Texas.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Avery's Chapel at McCaskill. Herndon Cornelius is in charge of arrangements.

APA Awards to Be Given Out Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The annual mid-winter convention of the Arkansas Press Assn. opens today with several newspaper awards to be presented.

Four papers will receive cash prizes in the Chet Lauck Americanism Awards contest. Two other papers will be honored in the second annual Industrial Awards contest sponsored by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Winners in both contests will be disclosed at a banquet tonight.

The Stuttgart Daily Leader and the Dumas Clarion, winners in last year's Arkansas Newspaper Contest Sweepstakes, will receive awards from Clyde E. Byrd, executive vice president and general manager of the Arkansas Livestock Show Assn.

A workshop on newspaper design will be conducted this afternoon.

Eugene Rinta of Washington, D.C., executive director of the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, will deliver the principal address of the two-day convention. He will speak tomorrow on the federal budget and recent Internal Revenue Service rulings which affect advertising and trade groups.

Officers will be elected for both the APA and the women's auxiliary, the Arkansas Press Women. Mrs. Helen Vandenberg of Shell Rock, Iowa, will speak to the women's group tomorrow.

Says Faubus Now Owns The Recorder

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Democrat reported today that Faubus had turned over the Arkansas Recorder, a weekly state governmental news publication.

The Democrat said it also learned that Faubus apparently had intended to keep this a secret until he decided definitely whether to seek a fourth term.

Faubus still owns a weekly newspaper at Huntsville, his home town in Madison County.

He was not available for comment on the report.

Ron Burnham, formerly a Democrat reporter and currently a magazine publisher, was listed today as purchaser of the Recorder with the stock in his name.

Asked about Faubus' reported connection with the publication, Burnham said he had no comment.

Living Costs Decline Some, U. S. Declares

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs as measured by the government declined one-tenth of one percent in December. It was the first drop in four months.

Lower prices for food, clothing and durable commodities were largely responsible for the decline. Costs of services continued to climb.

The Labor Department announced today that its consumer price index declined to 125.5 percent of the 1947-49 base period.

This is a 1 1/2 percent above the level of December 1959. The December drop wiped out a slight November increase and returned the index to the October level.

Approximately 575,000 workers will nevertheless get pay boosts of 1 or 2 cents an hour based on the new index. Their wages are geared partly to changes in the official index.

Jernigan to Seek Holt's Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Chief Pulaski Deputy Prosecutor John T. Jernigan announced today he will seek the prosecuting attorney's post now held by J. Frank Holt.

Holt, in his third term as prosecutor for Pulaski and Perry counties, disclosed yesterday that he would not seek another term in this summer's Democratic primary.

He said he would announce soon whether he would "ask for a promotion to higher office or return to private practice."

Ike Invited to Visit More Asian Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Eisenhower has been invited to visit several Far Eastern countries.

But associate press secretary Anne Wheaton declined to speculate whether he will go to any other than Japan.

It was announced Wednesday that Eisenhower will visit Japan about June 20 on route back to Washington from a 10-day tour of the Soviet Union.

This touched off reports that the President might expand his trip to include stops elsewhere in the Far East.

Eisenhower told Sen. Hiram Fong (R-Hawaii) Thursday he would like to stop for a day in Hawaii on his way back to Washington from Japan. That touched off speculation as to whether the President might also visit the nation's other newest state, Alaska.

Asked about that possibility, Mrs. Wheaton said again that she had no information on any possible stops.

Miss Sam Stands Trip in Fine Shape

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Miss Sam, the female monkey who rode a Little Joe booster rocket about 9 1/2 miles above Wallis Island, Va., Thursday and survived the parachute drop back to earth, returned to the School of Aviation Medicine today.

A brief announcement from the school said the young monkey and the scientists looking after her are in fine shape.

Space scientists have said that Miss Sam will be mated with Sam, a male monkey who survived a similar flight Dec. 4, when the two animals reach maturity in about a year. Scientists plan to study genetic repercussions of the space flight.

Steel Strike Halts Work On Nuclear Ships

QUINCY, Mass. (AP)—Work on a billion dollars' worth of ship construction—including three nuclear-powered vessels—halted today as a strike by Bethlehem Steel Co. shipbuilders spread along the East Coast.

More than 17,000 workers at nine Bethlehem plants were expected to be affected by the walkout, which began Friday at Hoboken, N.J., and jumped to West Milton, N.Y., and Quincy today. Some 12-250 employees already were involved in the dispute.

A spokesman for Local 5, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilders, said the full impact of the strike might not be felt until Monday because only skeleton crews work weekends in some areas.

He said other Bethlehem plants expected to be affected are at East Boston, Mass., Sparrows Point, Key Highway, and Baltimore, Md., and Brooklyn and Staten Island, N.Y.

The strike halted construction in Quincy on the 260-million-dollar cruiser Long Beach, the destroyer Bainbridge, and the frigate Ueoe Epeh is nuclear-powered. Work also ceased on the cruiser Springfield, being converted into a missile carrier, and on five tankers. Some 11 workers were affected in Quincy.

At Hoboken, more than 1,000 men walked out of the Bethlehem yard in West Milton, N.Y., 250 workers struck, halting production of the prototype hull for the destroyer Bainbridge, being built at Quincy.

The union's contract with Bethlehem expired July 31. A union spokesman said the basic grievances are seniority and call-in pay. Wage increases had not been discussed, he said.

John F. McGonnigal, executive secretary of Local 5, said there are three classes of hourly rated mechanics at the Quincy Ford River yard. This is the largest affected by the strike. The mechanics are paid, respectively, $2.00, $2.63 and $2.54. At Bethlehem's West Coast yards, he said, there is only one class of mechanics who are paid $2.85 an hour.

McGonnigal said the usual practice has been to give four hours pay to an employee called in and then sent home because of lack of work. Under present work rules, he said, the company will pay only one hour.

"But on the West Coast," he said, "the company has restored the four-hour call-in pay."

Key Measure of Program Is Act 9

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The key measure of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' industrial financing program became Act 9 of the special session, which ended yesterday.

The act authorizes cities and towns to vote tax-free revenue bonds for industrial plants with the bonds to be retired by plant rentals.

It was a Senate bill. A House bill authorizing compact between cities and counties to obtain industries became Act 2, and a Senate bill permitting the state to purchase limited amounts of the revenue bonds became Act 10.

The division between Senate and House bills was of no significance. Each house passed identical bills and then passed and sent branch to the governor for his decision.

In all, the Legislature enacted 12 laws—eight requested by Faubus and the Senate's salary and expense measure.

The House didn't have a salary bill. It used money left from the 1959 regular session.

Faubus signed seven House bills and five Senate bills.

By tradition the Senate salary bill became Act 1.

Faubus signed the measure late yesterday and they were delivered to the secretary of state's office for numbering and recording today.

Mrs. Vivian Collier, the bill clerk, said the bills were given act numbers as they were reached.

For First Time in Its Young History the Duplicate Bridge Club Plans a Benefit Night

By MARY AITA LAGETER

For the first time in the short history of the Hope Duplicate Bridge Club that group of men and women will sponsor a Benefit Bridge and Game Night on Monday, Jan. 25 at the Hope Country Club with all proceeds going to a charitable organization.

Through the city recreational department the Duplicate Bridge Club was organized in April, 1958, under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Branch, Dr. Walter Sims and Mike Kelly. The first president of the local club was R. L. Branch. In the succeeding years, Sid Rogers, Mrs. E. J. Whitman, Luther Hollamon, Mrs. Branch and Mrs. J. C. Broyles have held that position.

Keeping score at a game of duplicate bridge can be rather complicated and the results must be filed with national offices of the organization. The tabulations must be accurate, so the job of secretary of a duplicate bridge club is doubly important as well as exacting. Mrs. E. P. Young Jr. has capably fulfilled the obligations of that office since the formation of the Hope Club.

The Hope Club was nationally affiliated in February 1959 and since then it has been authorized to issue fractional master-point certificates. 1959 saw the first master-point game held in September and the first of an annual championship game in November. Duplicate bridge players will be able to get additional master-points at the charity benefit next Monday.

The entertainment next week sponsored by the Hope Duplicate Bridge Club will begin with a pot luck supper at 6:30, followed by a duplicate bridge game, as well as other card games that guests wish to play. The Hope club will pay the operating expenses so that all proceeds may go to charity.

Last year nearly two million dollars was raised in this manner by Duplicate Bridge Clubs all over the United States. Each year the American Contract Bridge League selects the charity to receive the proceeds from its member sponsored funds. The Red Cross Disaster Fund is the choice for 1960.

Players from Prescott, Nashville, Arkadelphia and Texarkana have been invited and of course, all the folks in Hope. This could be the beginning of an annual affair. One that has a double meaning—helping a worthy cause while enjoying an evening of fun.

Democrats to Step Up Drive for Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—In between lobby talk about presidential candidates, Democrats arranged today to step up a drive for much needed campaign funds.

They also may make it a big easier for states to meet their money quotas.

The Democratic National Committee gathered to discuss ways to start filling long empty campaign chests. Also awaiting disposition is a controversial plan to give big states a larger voice in committee business. The latter proposal, however, may be side-tracked to the national convention for decision.

The meeting was preliminary to a $100-a-plate fund-raising kickoff dinner here by the committee tomorrow night featuring former President Harry S. Truman and seven presidential ticket possibilities as speakers. The committee expects to gross well over $200,000.

The National Committee today was to consider a proposal to base state party contributions to the national committee on economic and political factors. National Chairman Paul M. Butler said this would be fairer and more sensible than the present formula based largely on population.

In this connection, Butler faced opposition to his proposal of last November to reward states that have met their campaign quotas with the best seats and hotel accommodations at the national convention.

A quota appeals board has been set up to hear complaints from states dissatisfied with their quotas. It will meet tomorrow. Advance word was it would be fairly generous in scaling down quotas.

Smackover School Leader Dies

SMACKOVER, Ark. (AP)—J. O. Hobgood, 53, superintendent of the Smackover School District since 1944, died at his home here today after an illness of several months.

He was a native of Jonesburg. Survivors include his widow, three brothers and a sister.

Funeral and burial will be here tomorrow.

Democratic Party Owes $243,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic party is heavily in debt. A "hole of good cheer" quarter of a million dollars in debt.

But when the figure of $243,000 was given the national committee today, Chairman Paul Butler called it a "hole of good cheer" since a year ago the party still was $750,000 in the hole from the 1958 campaign.

"So," Democratic treasurer Matthew D. McCloskey told the committee, "I think we're really starting this year off in pretty good shape."

Both Butler and McCloskey urged party leaders to turn on the heat for more financial support.

Survivors of Crash to Take a Ship Now

By ROBERT D. CLARKE

MONTONGO BAY, Jamaica (AP)—Two survivors of the Colombian airliner crash that killed 37 persons said today they will make the last leg of their jinxed trip to Ecuador by ship.

"I don't care if we have to go to Greenland to get a ship," said Jan Kelton, 46, a United Nations official traveling with his wife to a new assignment in South America.

The Keltons, two Dutch passengers and five crew members escaped virtually unhurt in the crash early Thursday of the Avianca airliner from New York. All 17 Americans aboard were killed.

There had been one interruption before the Super Constellation of the Avianca Colombian National Airline met tragedy on this Caribbean holiday island. A coughing engine forced a 10-hour stopover for repairs in Miami. Four passengers quit the plane there.

Kelton, a Scotsman attached to the U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization, told relatives who telephoned that he and his wife were "both excellently all right."

"We are not even bleary-eyed," he said. "But I think we might dispense with planes for a while. We intend to wait for a ship if we can get one to Miami to get a ship. I don't care if we have to go to Greenland."

When the big plane overturned and exploded in flames after settling down here, the Keltons wrenched their way out through an emergency exit and splashed through a swampy lagoon to safety.

"There was absolutely no warning of the crash," said Kelton. "We came out of a rain squall at Montongo Bay and started onto the runway."

"We hit with a crunch, bounced and skidded along on one side with fire roaring past the windows on one side. Then the plane came to a halt. We were upside down, suspended in our seats by our safety belts and disoriented because the plane had flown around as well as overturning."

"I got free and unclipped my wife's seat belt. The only light was the glow from the fire. We heard no commotion from the rest of the plane. While I was looking for an emergency exit, the steward got it quite open and popped out, but flames enveloped the exit immediately after."

"Another passenger ripped open a door on the opposite side of the plane toward the water. We jumped in. It was only two feet deep, but I was still trying to hurry along because I feared the flaming gasoline would spread on the water."

The Jamaican government appointed a special commissioner to investigate the crash. Some witnesses said the left landing gear collapsed after the airliner touched down.

Wrong Power, Child in Critical Shape

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Two small children sprinkled their infant smiles with drum cleaner Thursday, thinking the compound was baby powder.

Hospital attendants said Angela Morris, 10 months, was in critical condition today. She had second and third degree burns over most of her body.

Doctors said the baby also may have swallowed some of the so diurn hydroxide (caustic soda) crystals.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Morris told police their 3-year-old daughter and a son 2 showed the crystals on Angela as she lay in her crib. Mrs. Morris was in the house at the time.

Mrs. Morris was slightly burned hitting Angela from the crib. The mother was released after treatment at a hospital.

Plane Crashes Baffling as a Jigsaw Puzzle

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—An airliner plunged into the Gulf of Mexico Nov. 10. Another crashed in North Carolina Jan. 6. Together they make one of the most intricate "mysteries" investigators have ever been asked to solve.

More pieces of this human jigsaw puzzle keep coming in all the time, but where the pieces fit and the kind of picture they make is still as baffling as ever. Here are some of the questions that haven't been answered:

1. Were the two crashes in which a total of 70 persons died caused by bombs? Even this much has not been proved. The first plane is at the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico. Of the second, the latest word is that it was an explosive made it disintegrate in flight. It was an uncommon kind, not like dynamite or military-grade which leaves telltale traces.

2. If the Gulf crash was caused by a bomb, was it planted by Robert Vernon Spears, a nature park and an ex-convict, it was listed as a passenger on the doomed plane, but the FBI found him alive Wednesday in Phoenix, Ariz.

3. Who took Spears' place as a passenger on the Gulf plane? Was it William A. (Al) Taylor, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI, who told him to take the plane in his place? Spears denies it. But he has been studied hypnosis, and his wife, Frances, says she is sure some one could be so hypnotized. There is no evidence Taylor was on the plane, but he hasn't been seen since the crash.

4. Can the North Carolina crash be traced to a suicide? Bomb Julian A. Frank, 32, a heavily insured Westport, Conn., lawyer, has been an object of suspicion. An unproved theory is that Frank committed suicide by exploding a bomb on the plane, taking 39 others to death with him.

5. If the worst is true, was there some clandestine link between these two tragedies? There is some evidence that Spears and Frank had met, but it is not conclusive.

Bills and pieces fell into the jigsaw puzzle Friday, some seeming to fit and others merely cluttering the picture.

In Dallas, Mrs. Spears said that her husband denied to her that he had sabotaged the Gulf airliner, in which 42 died. She said she would not have taken the $100,000 from an insurance policy he carried. She said she had told Spears this when he made a secret visit to her in Dallas Jan. 7, during the period he was presumed to be dead.

Furthermore, she said, Spears took out the one-year insurance policy Sept. 2, not just before the Nov. 10 airliner crash.

In Washington, it was learned that Spears had electric tape and flashlight batteries along with dynamite blasting caps in his luggage when the FBI picked him up at a Phoenix motel. The finding of a blasting cap had been reported a couple of days ago. Earlier, a cache of dynamite had been found at the place where Spears was hiding out in Arizona.

At Charleston, S.C., Julian Frank's widow, a beautiful former model, was reported in serious condition in a private hospital. Her lawyer, Carl J. Rubin, said in New York she was in a miserable shape as she was traveling to Florida by train. He said it was caused by "harassment which arose from unfounded speculation and irresponsible conjecture" about her husband's death.

At Charlotte, N.C., Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) said that he is sticking by his theory that a suicide bomb caused the Bolivia, N.C., crash. He said his information had come from Civil Aeronautics Board probes "who have worked all their lives in this field."

Monroney is chairman of the Senate aviation subcommittee. The chief unanswered question, Monroney said, is what kind of explosive was used.

"The chemical analysis is not complete," he said, "but what's been done so far indicates that the explosive was of a low order, not nitroglycerine, black powder, or dynamite. But there are plenty of more exotic explosives that don't leave a residue."

Anne Frank Diary to Be Checked

KIEL, Germany (AP)—A Kiel court has asked two experts to check the authenticity of the famed diary of Anne Frank, the Jewish girl who died in a Nazi concentration camp after hiding for months with her family in an Amsterdam attic.

State justice authorities said a handwriting expert will check whether the entries in the diary actually were made by the girl and a translation expert will examine their translation from Dutch into German.

A spokesman said the experts' findings are expected to be ready by the end of March, to be used as evidence in the trial of Lotte Stielau, a high school teacher and district leader of the extreme right-wing German Reich party. Stielau was suspended from her job after writing a newspaper that "the forged diaries of Eva Braun and the Queen of England and the not much more authentic one of Anne Frank have yielded several million marks for those who profited from the German defeat but also have rendered us (the Germans) more sensible."

Anne's father, Otto Frank, filed a complaint against Stielau for making anti-Jewish remarks, slandering and libeling the memory of dead persons. The trial is expected in April.

Democrats of South Backing L. Johnson

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern Democrats put their chips down today on Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as their choice for the party's presidential nominee.

Democrat Grover Jr., Georgia, national committeeman, said it was the consensus of an 11-state meeting here Thursday night that Johnson offers the best chance for the South to make its weight felt in the Los Angeles convention.

Mrs. Lennard Thomas, Alabama, committeewoman, agreed with Grover on the results of the closed session. She pointed out, however, that this does not necessarily mean that Johnson will have a solid Southern bloc.

Grover said he told this Southern colleague he believes Johnson will have about the same number of votes when the convention begins as was marshalled behind Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia in the 1952 convention. Russell had nearly solid Southern backing with scattered votes in other sections.

"I think Johnson's influence will be greater than Russell's because there are so many candidates seeking the nomination this year and none who has the strength that Adlai Stevenson had in 1952," Grover said.

At the Democratic National Committee meeting here, there were other evidences of support for Johnson, who is regarded as receptive to the nomination should come his way.

Jacob M. Arvey, Illinois national committeeman, said that if Johnson were the nominee he believes he could carry numerous Cook County (Chicago) districts his civil rights voting records.

Arvey, who generally is regarded as backing Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri for top place on the ticket, said that all of the party's presidential hopefuls have strength in Illinois. He said he has not yet made up his mind which one to support.

Calvin W. Hawkins, Utah national committeeman, said there was talk of Johnson in his state but that sentiment has not taken there.

Mrs. Marguerite Peyton Thompson, Colorado national committeewoman, said that Edwin C. Johnson, former senator and governor, has been stirring up interest in the Senate majority leader in her state. She added that there has been no definite indication of sentiment on the nominee.

A major purpose of the National Committee session was to discuss ways of filling long empty campaign chests.

The meeting was preliminary to a $100-a-plate fund-raising kickoff dinner here by the committee Saturday night featuring former President Harry S. Truman and seven presidential ticket possibilities as speakers. The committee expects to gross well over $200,000.

Kennedy Is Committed to 3 Primaries

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts has committed himself to three primary election tests but so far faces opposition in only one, Wisconsin.

Kennedy made a flying trip into the wintry Midwest Thursday to announce at Milwaukee his entrance into the Wisconsin primary, and at Omaha his candidacy in Nebraska.

In Wisconsin's April 5th primary, Kennedy said he was in a "hazardous" position in placing his name in the primary in a state next to Minnesota, the home state of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Humphrey opposes him in the Wisconsin contest.

But the Wisconsin primary will have a decisive effect—the winner will have an extremely strong position at the convention, and decisively so," Kennedy said.

Kennedy said he would consider it a victory if he gained 51 percent of the primary vote in Wisconsin. The vote, however, is not binding on delegates.

The entry of Kennedy in Wisconsin was regarded as an indication Kennedy hopes to eliminate Humphrey as a presidential contender through that election and battle Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas at the convention for the nomination.

Kennedy said he looked upon Johnson as his most formidable opponent as of now, basing this on reports that Johnson, Senate floor leader of the Democrats, has control of a bit over 400 convention votes.

Bulldozers Try to Halt Lava Flow

HONOLULU, Hawaii (AP)—Fifteen giant bulldozers today were hastily erecting a new dike in an attempt to save another threatened area from erupting Kilauea's lava on Hawaii island.

The barricade was being put up near Kumuakahi Point, an ever-widening river of molten lava continued to pour out of Kilauea's fiery fissure north of Kapoho village. Kapoho's 200 residents have been evacuated.

The eruption, in its eighth day, has spread tentacles of boiling lava over fertile sugar cane, papaya groves and coffee plantations.

It has caused an estimated three million dollars damage.

Key Measure to Get Quick Court Test

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The key measure of Arkansas' new industrial financing laws will get a quick court test before it is applied to finance a $1,300,000 plant for the Seiberling Rubber Co. at Batesville.

Even before Gov. Orval E. Faubus signed the measures into law yesterday, William J. Smith, his legal adviser, announced that a test suit would be filed Monday in Independence Chancery Court at Batesville to determine constitutionality of a law which permits cities and counties to issue tax-free revenue bonds to build and equip industrial plants.

Test suits are routine for laws authorizing bond issues. Smith estimated it would take about two months to get a final ruling on the law from the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Other industrial measures signed by Faubus yesterday permit cities and counties to join together to promote industry and authorize the state to buy up to two million dollars worth of the new-type industrial bonds.

The House spent 1½ hours and the Senate 40 minutes yesterday finishing legislative action on the industrial laws and eight minor bills Faubus included in his special session call.

Faubus signed the measures into law late yesterday. All except two—the authorization and appropriation for a new chancery court in the Fourth Chancery District, contained emergency clauses and became effective immediately.

Except for two negative votes in the House on the bill to permit the state to buy bonds, Faubus' industrial measures drew no opposition. There were a few scattered votes against some of the other measures.

The Legislature wound up its work just short of 51 hours after the special session convened at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Faubus praised the General Assembly for its speedy work and said the new unanimous approval of the industrial bills reflected "the deep desire and the unity of purpose of the people of the state for the continued prosperity, growth and progress of Arkansas."

Faubus said several cities besides Batesville had expressed interest already in using the new laws in their industrial programs. One of the factors influencing Faubus to call the special session was an announcement by the Seiberling Rubber Co. that it would locate a $1,300,000 plant at Batesville if adequate financing could be obtained.

Other laws enacted by the special session: Amend the 1970 uniform motor vehicle code to eliminate a requirement that Arkansas residents have to post $500 bond if they file a traffic accident suit against an out-of-state resident.

DOROTHY DIX Believes God Moves In a Mysterious Way

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I married a mentally ill man. It was hard to endure, but I didn't understand. When I could not get a divorce I had a nervous breakdown. I guess God knocked me flat on my back so I could look up into His face. By being put on the same level with my husband I understood him for the first time. I knew what he was going through. As a result we were able to help each other like the blind leading the blind. We now go to church together and, by prayer and Bible reading, hope to have a happy home. Mentally sick people are human. They cannot go it alone. —E.A.M.

Dear E.A.M.: What you say is so true. Only by experiencing trouble firsthand do we acquire understanding and compassion.

I am 14 and a freshman in high school. For the past year I have been fond of a certain boy in my class. He is fairly intelligent, has a nice personality, sense of humor, is good-looking but has one fault—little interest in girls. How can I get him to notice me? I'm sure if you print this it will help a lot of girls my age with the same problem. —Dina

Dear Dina: At this point you should be more concerned with school grades than boy friends. If your parents are educating you, as I take it they are, show your appreciation by concentrating on the work at hand—school work. Give it your best!

Funfully enough, once the boys realize they've been relegated to second place, they'll camp on your doorstep—including the one you're trying to attract now.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm 14 years of age and know all there is about life. I met quite a lot of boys and never really liked any of them. But I met this guy who says he's 20. We dated for a while and fell deeply in love. I just found out that he is really 22, married and has a kid! I cry all night and cannot do my school work. I even went out with other boys to see if I could forget him but I can't.

He's getting a divorce soon and to permit sale of ungraded eggs by merchants who buy direct from the producer for resale direct to the consumer.

Appropriate $16,700 for operation of the Arkansas Civil Air Patrol through June 30, 1960.

Make a supplemental appropriation of $800,000 from vested funds to pay teacher retirement benefits through June 30, 1961.

Appropriate $127,500 to be divided equally among Arkansas' 78 soil conservation districts.

Appropriate $30,000 to pay costs of hosting the 1960 Southern Governors Conference which will be held in Arkansas later this year.

Create a second division chancery court in the Fourth Chancery District (Jefferson, Lincoln, Arkansas and Cleveland counties), effective Jan. 1, 1961.

Appropriate $6,900 to pay costs of the new court through June 30, 1961.

Appropriate $7,025 to pay special session expenses of the Senate.

Attempts to introduce legislation not included in the governor's special session call failed. The Senate would not consider a bill to give cities and counties priority in purchase of surplus state hospital property and the House refused to act on a bill to appropriate $80,000 for a new roll call machine for the House chamber.

Cleburne Rep. Gean P. Houston introduced the only other bill not authorized by Faubus. It would have repealed, rather than amended, the egg-grading law. Houston withdrew the bill after he failed to effect defeat of the amendment.

The Senate passed a resolution commending Faubus for calling the special session, but the House would not consider resolutions praising Winthrop Rockefeller for his work as chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and commending the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees for naming Storm Wiley vice president for medical affairs.

still wants to go out with me. He's real swell. Everyone likes him and says I would be stupid to stop seeing him. You couldn't ask for a better guy. Would it really be stupid to stop seeing him? I love him very much and he feels the same way.

Neither my mother nor my father have met him but from what they hear they think he's swell. He knows how old I am and says that age doesn't matter. But we had a serious talk and I asked him, suppose we would get married and he did the same thing to me. Then he said that he wants a divorce because he's ashamed of his wife. And a woman like that doesn't deserve a guy like him.

Please, help me. I'll do anything you say. I don't know what we'd do if there wasn't a person like you around to help us. Thank you very much and God bless you always. —Troubled

Dear Dorothy: I only wish I could say, "Hang on to the guy—he's worth having." But on the basis of what you tell me, he's anything but the right one for you.

Stop seeing him till he gets his divorce—then come on. You may believe you know all about life but you're still got a lot to learn. Even if he were single, he shouldn't be talking marriage to a 14-year-old girl. And, no matter how his wife looks, talks or acts, he never should say he's ashamed of her. After all, he did think enough of the girl to marry her. There are two sides to every story.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

LEAP YEAR NOTE—Girls who plan to take advantage of Leap Year may have to do some fast shuffling to catch a mate. How fast depends on their age group, as chart above shows. As of last July, there were 87,051,000 males and 89,462,000 females in the nation, says the Census Bureau. That made an average of about 980 men for each 1,000 women in the country.

FLUID DRIVE—Susan Christine Von Salza gets a few words of wisdom from Coach George Haines, leaning over a Santa Clara, Calif., pool. The 18-year-old holds every U. S. short-course freestyle record from 100 to 500 yards.

none was forecast. expected to be 10-15 in the north. Low temperatures tonight are west and 16-25 elsewhere.

Hope Takes 2 Games From Arkadelphia

BY TEDDY JONES, JR.

Hope High School's junior and senior boys basketball teams won victories over the Arkadelphia High School Badgers in a pair of 7A Conference games last night at the Tappan Field House.

The senior boys took a big win over the Badgers to the tune of 67 to 44 while the Hope Juniors won the opener 32 to 23.

Coach Don Seyler's platoon system again paid off and proved a major factor in wearing down the Badgers. Hope's fast, speedy ball handling unit started things off for the Bobcats and held a two point advantage at the end of the first quarter, 14 to 12.

The usual starting five took over in the second and led 27 to 22 at the half and held on throughout the third period to lead 40 to 34.

Then, the starting five, B teamers up from last year. Calhoun, Duke, Billy Walker, Larry Arnett and Gene Robinson took over in the final period to outscore the Badgers 17 to 10 and end on top by the final score of 67 to 44.

The platoon system proved effective in wearing down the Badgers and also in distributing rather evenly the fouls called on Hope. The Badgers on the other hand went most of the way with six men and lost Tony McMillan, one of their stellar players early in the fourth period.

The veteran Bobcat five of Thurman, Smiley, Vaughn, Walton and Erwin piled up 25 points and held a decided edge in rebounding.

Eleven Hope players broke into the scoring column with Calhoun high with ten points followed in order by Thurman with 8, Erwin 7, Smiley, Robinson, Arnett with 6, Vaughn and Walton with 4 each, and Churchwell, Duke, Tommy Jones two each.

John Estes, Arkadelphia forward was the game's high scorer with 15 points.

The Junior game was close throughout with the young Cats holding a 9 to 4 lead at the end of the first quarter; 14 to 14 at the half; 23 to 19 at the end of the third and ending with a 9 point win, 32 to 23.

Earl Ray Murphy was the game's high scorer with 14 points followed by David Porterfield with 7 and Tony Purdie with 6. Dan Jones 3 and Mac McLary's 2 rounded out Hope's scorers.

Echols with 8, Calhoun with 7, Coon with 6 and Gray with 2 accounted for the Junior Badgers scoring.

Tonight both the Junior and Senior boys journey to Camden for a pair of 4A Conference games.

Both the Hope B boys and Senior girls were eliminated from the Saratoga tournament in games played at Saratoga last night.

Marlin Off the Mississippi Mouth
By AL McCLANE
Fishing Editor
Field & Stream

The most unusual angling story of 1959 was the discovery of marlin in the Gulf of Mexico—off the mouth of the Mississippi.

The waters of this vast area have never been probed to any extent, but now with the development of larger craft and radar and ship to shore communications, commercial and deep sea fishermen have been coming up with unheard of catches.

The exact location of this bonanza is through South and Southwest Pass, where the waters of the mighty river emerge on the way to join the ocean. Catching a variety of big game fish such as sailfish, blue and white marlin, yellowfin, blackfin and bluefin and tuna.

Scientists of the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission say the fish have always been there, because the Mississippi, which drains 30 states and parts of Canada, deposits the natural fertilizer in the Gulf which feeds trillions of tiny plants that feed

Teams Advance In Saratoga Tournament

In the annual Saratoga Invitational tournament now going on, Spring Hill defeated Bradley 33 to 29 Friday afternoon. Kidd scored 11, Warner 8 and Townsend 6 for the winners. Jackson made 8 for Bradley. Spring Hill led 12-8, 22-17 and 27-23 at the quarters.

In the other Friday afternoon games, Bradley senior girls defeated Emmet 35-28 with Hammer getting 15 and Harris 10. Douglas looped 11, Matthews 10 and Jones 4 for Emmet. Bradley led 12-9, 19-15 and 28-20 at the periods.

Saratoga senior boys took the Hope B boys 66 to 38 with Dilard getting 22, Crawford 15, Webb 13 and McJunkins 12. Roberts and Powell hit for 11 apiece for the Bobcats. Fry scored 10 and Hooten 6. Saratoga led 15-8, 34-20 and 58-31 at the quarters.

Saratoga senior girls grabbed a 40-31 victory over the Hope Lady-cats with Sue Porter getting 25, Myra McLary 11 and Parsons 4. Nita Messer paced the Hope team with 16, Ida Nell England scored 13 and Brenda Mitchell 5. Saratoga led 8-5, 24-10 and 31-21 at the quarters.

Locksburg senior boys dropped Blaines 38-30 with Trusley getting 12 and Dowdle 11. Smith and Ross hooked 8 each and Hicks 8 for Blaines. Locksburg led 3-0, 21-12 and 27-22 at the quarters.

When to Fish or Hunt

Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar Periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major Periods are shown in boldface type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours; thereafter, the Minor Periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

day as a prelude to the opening of the meeting Wednesday. The chorus, composed of outstanding Negro singers in Hot Springs, was augmented by visiting soloists, including Mr. Grace Cobb, dramatic soprano and Rev. S. H. Woodson Jr., baritone of Trenton, N.Y.

Be Generous With The March of Dimes Campaign

To us it has always seemed fitting that the March of Dimes appeal should be held in January. For years, the March of Dimes has meant hope to the children suffering from polio.

Only a few short years ago, a March of Dimes financed research project produced a polio vaccine that has protected millions from the crippling disease. And this year too, it is fitting that the March of Dimes comes at a time when hopes are high for the new year.

This year, it's a new March of Dimes, because it now offers new hope to even more millions — the patients suffering from the crippling birth defects and arthritis and rheumatism is more than from polio. These diseases affect one family out of every four in this country.

Crippling birth defects is the major unmet childhood problem in the U.S. About 250,000 children annually, one in 16 are born with significant birth defects.

The number of Americans suffering from some form of arthritis and rheumatism is more than 11,000,000. Among these are children afflicted with rheumatoid arthritis.

And finally, there are more than 50,000 victims of paralytic polio still being aided by the March of Dimes.

Remember all these when you pass a coin collector for the New March of Dimes. Remember the numbers: too, when you look at your own children. Give every time you have a chance.

PARIS (AP)—The French government Thursday night cancelled a ban on air flights scheduled to have gone into effect today over a large section of the Sahara where French atomic blasts are planned. No reason was given. A previous government announcement said there would be several test alerts.

GENEVA (AP)—The World Health Organization said today the Soviet government had reported nine cases of smallpox in Moscow. Vaccinations of Soviets and foreigners were started in the Soviet Union.

one got a tooth puller."

"Quickest you ever saw," Lössie said.

"And maybe —" Zach said more slowly, looking at me in a kind of bushy brows in a shrewd, steady manner. "And maybe a girl that stands off and throws knives at his woman, and her standin' against a board."

"No, Mr. Wheelright," Lössie said, "there's no knife thrower."

"If they was such a one," Zach said ponderously, "I'd advise ye to stay away from there like the 'w' was smallpox."

"That's right, Lössie Ann," said Zach's woman. "Him that Zach refers to has got rattlesnake blood in his veins instead of blood. My man don't back off from no body along the cannal from Troy to Buffalo, but he gives ground to that livin' skeleton, and don't take no shame for it."

"Wide shoulders and skinny arms and legs and a head like a death's head" asked Lössie.

"That's the spittin' image of him," Zach said. "And the funny thing is His woman that he throws knives at was sweet 'n' perty as a princess in one of them fairy stories."

Late in the afternoon, Lössie and I shook hands all around and went home to supper. Because there would have been no explanations if we absented ourselves.

"Do you suppose?" I asked "that Mr. Wheelright's knife thrower and Madam Janeway's Oscar are one and the same?"

"Well, now, Orrin," she said, "I should just hazard a guess that as Madam's attorney, at law and counselor in chancery, you would stay away from wadin' the answer to that question."

I sometimes have an uncomfortable feeling that Lössie is far younger than I though she is younger and a girl to boot.

Pender Takes Sugar Ray for World Crown

By BOB HOOBING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—Paul Pender, an articulate ex-fireman who denounces the evils of boxing and three times quit the ring, today rules as the world middleweight champion—limited version.

Pender took the final trappings off Sugar Ray Robinson in a 15-round split decision Friday night after the National Boxing Assn. earlier had stripped the veteran New Yorker of his crown in 48 states.

The two camps differed as to the site of the rematch, written into the contract with a 90-day limit, should Pender win.

Robinson's manager, George Gainford, spoke forcefully of his conviction that Sugar Ray had won.

"We'll have the return in New York if Madison Square Garden will have it," he added. "They won't have it here, and I don't think it's fair for them to have the return here too."

Naturally, Pender, 29, a resident of suburban Brookline, professes his home grounds but added: "I'm ready for him, definitely, any time, any place."

His title was recognized only in Massachusetts and New York.

While the 10,608 Boston Garden fans knew Pender in his moment of triumph, many a member of the national television audience wanted to know who was this brash upstart who unseated the ageless Sugar Ray.

Well-spoken enough to be mistaken for a young business executive, Pender is given away by a twice-broken nose plus gnarled hands which shattered on him five years ago. It happened during a battle with current NBA recognized champ Gene Fullmer, costing him the decision and almost ending his fistie pursuits.

Long convinced professional boxer was no attraction but the boxing, Pender prepared for the Robinson match with the oath: "This definitely is my last comeback."

After more than a decade in the pro ranks, Paul had a good pay night. His share was 20 per cent of the $85,010 gate and 15 per cent of the $75,000 TV money. Robinson picked up 42 1/2 per cent of the gate plus 75 per cent of the TV take.

Caustically jabbing and moving away from Robinson, 39, in the early stages Friday night, Pender made Sugar miss long right hands labeled nayo, they became more forceful in the late stages. He landed effectively on Robinson's head while protecting his own.

Robinson landed his most solid blows to Pender's body.

Judges Joe Santoro and John Norton voted 147-138 and 148-142 in favor of Pender on the 1-point must system. Referee Joe Zapuska called it Robinson, 148-142.

Aneurin Bevin Reportedly Very Weak

LONDON (AP)—Aneurin Bevan, the Welsh miner who rose to be Britain's No. 2 Socialist, was reported "very weak" today in his fight for life after a major abdominal operation.

"Mr. Bevan is very weak," said a medical bulletin issued this morning on the 62-year-old deputy leader of the British Labor Party.

It followed a more optimistic bulletin Thursday night which said there had been a slight improvement in the politician's condition.

Bevan underwent surgery Dec. 29. His illness has never been announced, although it has been rumored he was suffering from cancer of a duodenal ulcer. Labor Party Leader Hugh Gaitskell denied the cancer rumor.

For several weeks after the operation Bevan's condition improved slowly, and a few days ago he was allowed to get up and walk around his room. But on Wednesday he had a setback. His wife Jennie Lee, also a member of Parliament, has been at the hospital since.

National Baptists Hold Meeting

Approximately 1,500 persons from all sections of the nation attended the annual mid-winter Executive Board meeting of the National Baptist Convention, which opened Wednesday, in Hot Springs (The two day meeting was presided over by Dr. J. H. Jackson of Chicago, president of the National Convention.

The largest organization of its kind, the convention represents 5 million Negro Baptists, met here annually since 1954. The Convention owns the huge Baptist Hotel and Bathhouse in Hot Springs.

The board mapped plans for national convention to open Sept. 6 in Philadelphia.

The board also discussed the retirement program for ministers steps for closer union with other religious churches and further discussed the foreign missions program, Africa, Japan and the Bahamas and the evangelistic program.

A 100 voice choir, under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Franklin of St. Louis, vice president of the board, presented a musical Tuesday.

POWER that sustains
may be found thru regular church attendance

GOD

The GLAD Way

TRUST

Too long have we thought of The Way of the Cross as the "sad way." There may be sad moments along every noble path, but not all great ways are sad ways. The path of motherhood may have sad turns but it is a satisfying path. The path of education climbs some difficult and steep places but it is a thrilling way. Isaiah talked about the highway of God, where faithful servants passed on good errands. The way of the Cross is the way one takes when he serves God. It is not the "Sad Way" but rather the "Glad Way." Jesus came by way of the Cross, and the Book of Books on which the cross is planted, tells us to "take up our cross and follow." Whether atop the church steeple or on the highest mountain, it is The Glad Way. Heaven and God are at the end of that way. It is today aglow with the light of forgiving grace. It challenges the weak to walk by faith and offers pardon to those who fall at its foot. It is where Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." It is The Glad Way.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions, stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are making religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we on Sunday, you in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular church-goer and a daily Bible reader.
